

How to read a story with no words...

This is story for you and your child to share. Sharing stories is a great way to spend time with your child but also is one of the BEST ways to help them learn. This story is wordless. This means that the story is told through the pictures. There are a few words about the story on your activity sheet but there is no right or wrong way to tell the story. It is up to you and your child to make it up!

How to read a story with no words...

Find a comfortable place to sit with your child and spend time looking at the pictures together. Make sure both of you can see the page. Talk to your child about what you think is happening on each page. Ask your child questions about what they think is happening or what they see. Enjoy looking for new things together and have fun with the adventures of Logiso, Valencia and their dog Luggy!
